THE following humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty have been tranſmitted hither by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Graſton Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Waterford, aſſembled at the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County at Dungarvan the 23d Day of April 1723.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the County of the Town of Drogheda, the 3d of May 1723.

Cadiz, May 25, N. S. The Britiſh Conſul here having ſollicited the Governour of this Place to exempt the Britiſh Ships from paying any longer the Charges of being viſited by the Officers of Health, and from other late Impoſitions, the Governour hath actually given the proper Orders for that Purpoſe; ſo that the Trade here from the North is in every reſpect as free as before the Plague at Marſeilles, and on the ſame footing as immediately before the late War with Spain. All continues very quiet in theſe Parts.

Stockholm, May 15, O. S. Little has been done in the Dyet this laſt Week, except that by Order of the States ſeveral Perſons have been taken into Cuſtody on Suſpicion of their having tampered with the Peaſants, and induced them to preſs for an Alteration in the preſent Form of Government. A Committee conſiſting of a certain Number of each Order, has been appointed to examine into that Affair: The Peaſants who are Repreſentatives for Dalecarlia and Sudermania ſpoke very warmly on this Occaſion: They ſaid, as they underſtood the Matter, the Buſineſs of the Committee was to examine certain Perſons for having put Projects into the Peaſants Heads, which they thought was to no Purpoſe, for they could aſſure them in the Name of all their Brethren, that the Peaſants were of themſelves reſolved to be governed by the antient Laws of Sweden only, without Regard to the new Form of Government. This bold Diſcourſe very much ſurprized the other Members of the Committee, who thought fit immediately to acquaint the other States with it; upon which the Nobility, Clergy, and Burghers ſent a Deputation to the Peaſants, to demand thoſe two Members of their Body. The Peaſants at at firſt made ſome Difficulty, but were at laſt prevailed upon to deliver them up. The Deputy for the Peaſants of Sudermania has endeavoured to make his Peace, but the Dalecarlian ſtands firm. On the 13th all the Dalecarlians in and about Stockholm, who get their Livelyhood by their daily Labour, repaired to the Aſſembly of the Peaſants, to inquire the Reaſon of the Impriſonment of their Countryman and Deputy. They came thither with their Axes, and other Inſtruments which they uſe in working, and made ſuch preſſing Inſtances, that the Body of the Peaſants ſent a very numerous Deputation to the King, to deſire that their two Members who were under Arreſt might be ſet at Liberty, for that their whole Body would Anſwer for their Perſons. The King referred this Affair to the States. This Morning between Twelve and One a-Clock, happened a moſt terrible Tempeſt of Hail Rain and Snow intermixed, with Thunder and Lightning. Four Churches, in diſtant Quarters of the Town, were all at once ſet on Fire by the Lightning. The Church of St. Jacob in the Heart of the Town (with Part of a large Houſe of Count de la Gardié's, and ſeveral other Houſes adjoining) in two Hours Time was quite conſumed. The two Churches in the Extremities of the Town were alſo burnt in the ſame Space of Time. The Church of St. Nicholas took Fire in the Chancel, but by good Help the Fire was extinguiſhed before it got to a Head. The Conſternation was general, no Body knowing whither to fly for Safety. His Swediſh Majeſty was the whole Time on Horſeback giving Directions.

Stockholm, May 22, O. S. Two Expreſſes from Petersbourg arrived here on Monday Night, and brought the News of the Duke of Holſtein's being contracted to the Princeſs of Muſcovy. M. Beſtuchef and M. Baſſewitz had Yeſterday a Conference with Count Horn, and acquainted him with this News. A Ruſſian Frigate is come up this River this Afternoon, and has brought Letters for his Swediſh Majeſty, who is gone into the Country; Prince Maximilian of Heſſe Caſſel being expected here Tomorrow, his Swediſh Majeſty is gone to a Place called Werbey to meet him.

Paris, June 12, N. S. The 6th Inſtant an Expreſs arrived at Meudon, with an Account, that Prince Leopold-Clement, eldeſt Son of the Duke of Lorrain, died on the 4th of the Small Pox, in the 17th Year of his Age, after five Days Illneſs: On this Occaſion the King will go into Mourning for three Weeks. On the 10th M. Pelletier des Forts and M. Fagon, Councellours of State and of the Royal Council, M. Dodun Comptroller General of the Finances, and the Count de Maurepas Secretary of State, Commiſſioners appointed by the King for this Purpoſe, went to the Aſſembly of the Clergy, and acquainted them that his Majeſty expected from them a Free-Gift of Eight Millions of Livres, to be collected and paid between this and the next Aſſembly which is to be held in 1725. The Commiſſioners withdrawing, the Aſſembly came unanimouſly into a Reſolution to raiſe the Sum required; and a Deputation of Eight Prelates going to the Apartment whither the Commiſſioners had withdrawn, communicated to them the Reſolution paſſed by the Aſſembly. The Prince of Pons is nominated to go to the Duke of Lorrain, to make his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the Prince his eldeſt Son.

Whitehall, June 8.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable the Lord Waldegrave to be one of the Gentlemen of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber, in the Room of the Duke of Richmond deceaſed.

The Perſon appointed by His Majeſty to ſucceed the Reverend Dr. John Waugh (nominated to the Biſhoprick of Carliſle) as Dean of Glouceſter, is Dr. John John Frankland, who by Miſtake was called Dr. Franklin in the Gazette of the 11t Inſtant.

Office of Ordnance June 6, 1723.

The Principal Officers of His Majeſty's Ordnance give Notice, that they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as ſhall be willing to furniſh Tents for Horſemen, according to the Pattern lodged in the Tower, on Tueſday morning next, being the 11th Inſtant, at which Time they are deſired to bring their Propoſals in Writing ſealed up.

South-Sea Houſe, May 30, 1723.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, that on the 26th of June next, they will be ready to pay off all the Bonds of the ſaid Company, dated the 25th of June, in the Years 1715, 1716, 1717, 1718, 1719, and 1720, from which Day all Intereſt ſhall ceaſe on ſuch of the ſaid Bonds as are not on or before the 18th Day of June next brought to the South-Sea Houſe, to be continued at 4 per Cent. for 12 Months.
